

Business profile in the field of Healthcare

Ref.: BRSG20180217002

Title: Singapore company focused on ageing population seeks European companies with medical products and solutions through distribution services agreement

Summary:

A Singaporean medical distribution company is looking for new assets for its portfolio in the field of innovative products to provide medical solutions for the aged/seniors in the areas of rehabilitation, geriatric care, psychiatric assessment, treatment and management as well as medication management. The target markets are the ageing population in Asian countries. This company is considering a distribution services agreement from European companies.

Type and Role of Partner Sought:

The company is looking to be a distributor through a distribution services agreement in this region for European companies with innovative products to provide medical solutions for the aged/seniors in the areas of rehabilitation, geriatric care, psychiatric assessment, treatment and management as well as medication management.