

Technology profile in the field of Healthcare

Ref.: TRFR20170905001

Title: Therapeutic innovations for diseases of the nervous system with high unmet medical needs

Summary:

A French pharmaceutical company is specialized in developing innovative treatments for diseases of the nervous system with high unmet medical needs. Within the frame of its development as fully integrated pharmaceutical company, it is currently looking for new assets for its portfolio in the field of neurological disorders. This company is considering license and/or research cooperation agreement as well as joint-venture agreement.

Type and Role of Partner Sought:

Industrial and academic partners, open for licensing, co-development, sponsored research with a pharmaceutical company