

UNITED NATIONS BUSINESS SEMINAR
STRATEGIC AIR TRANSPORTATION SERVICES
30 November – 1 December 2023

The United Nations (UN) peacekeeping operations help countries achieve lasting peace, support political processes, protect hundreds of thousands of civilians and help guarantee ceasefires. Currently, there are 90,000 Peacekeepers serving in twelve (12) Peacekeeping Operations globally. In support of such Peacekeeping Operations, the UN has a continuous requirement for strategic air transportation services for the movement of approximately 80,000 to 100,000 military/police and civilian personnel each year.

Additional information about the UN’s strategic air transportation services upcoming business opportunity is available: <https://www.ungm.org/Public/Notice/215860>

From 30 November – 1 December 2023, the UN is hosting a UN Business Seminar to engage with prospective air operators that can support the UN’s strategic air transportation services requirements. The UN Business Seminar will be held in hybrid format, with in-person participation at the UN’s offices in New York and virtual connection through MS Teams. This event is free of charge.

The seminar will include briefings by the UN team about doing business with the UN, the vendor registration process and information about procurement activities with a focus on strategic air transportation services requirements. Event participants are encouraged to register for one-on-one meetings with the UN team.

Registration for the event is open until 9 November 2023.
